Acknowledgments

To all the wonderful people who contributed suggestions, advice, and encouragement — thank you. I am grateful for your help during the development of America's Man on Horseback.

Your names remain unrecorded since I respect your concern that satire is most often misconstrued and that arsenic is more digestible than truth. Still, you know who you are and will recognize your thoughts and contributions throughout this book.

Also, many thanks to those who inadvertently inspired America's Man on Horseback — you, too, know who you are.
